

My Dream

When people say they they can't breathe
They get ignored by police
I want that to stop
Because of me

People all around the world
Fight for their rights
How can the world possibly be right?!
Without people like me.
People who aren't afraid!
People like me
I WILL help this city

People can't be themselves in this world
It makes my stomach whirl
It makes me sick
The inequality NEEDS to stop

People's lives are at stake!
This is no history class
This is happening now!
It's all around!
Yes! Yes!
Even in your very own town!
If this doesn't stop
More and more people WILL Start to drop!

"My face looks deformed to me now
All because of what was said by the crowd
I thought I was beautiful
I guess I was wrong
According to them
My neck is too long
My eye is too low
Eyebrows
Too furrowed
They tell me
'You must be disgusted to look in that mirror'
I'm not
But they tell me to change
All of the insults
They come in a sequel
Why
Why can't I just be equal"

These are the thoughts of many
It breaks me
It breaks me really

My dream
My big
Big dream
Is really Really
Yes truly
Helping the world along with equality
